The Massachusetts Historical Commission (MHC) has converted this paper record to digital format as part of ongoing projects to scan records of the Inventory of Historic Assets of the Commonwealth and National Register of Historic Places nominations for Massachusetts. Efforts are ongoing and not all inventory or National Register records related to this resource may be available in digital format at this time.

The MACRIS database and scanned files are highly dynamic; new information is added daily and both database records and related scanned files may be updated as new information is incorporated into MHC files. Users should note that there may be a considerable lag time between the receipt of new or updated records by MHC and the appearance of related information in MACRIS. Users should also note that not all source materials for the MACRIS database are made available as scanned images. Users may consult the records, files and maps available in MHC's public research area at its offices at the State Archives Building, 220 Morrissey Boulevard, Boston, open M-F, 9-5.

Users of this digital material acknowledge that they have read and understood the MACRIS Information and Disclaimer (<http://mhc-macris.net/macrisdisclaimer.htm>)

Data available via the MACRIS web interface, and associated scanned files are for information purposes only. THE ACT OF CHECKING THIS DATABASE AND ASSOCIATED SCANNED FILES DOES NOT SUBSTITUTE FOR COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LOCAL, STATE OR FEDERAL LAWS AND REGULATIONS. IF YOU ARE REPRESENTING A DEVELOPER AND/OR A PROPOSED PROJECT THAT WILL REQUIRE A PERMIT, LICENSE OR FUNDING FROM ANY STATE OR FEDERAL AGENCY YOU MUST SUBMIT A PROJECT NOTIFICATION FORM TO MHC FOR MHC'S REVIEW AND COMMENT. You can obtain a copy of a PNF through the MHC web site (www.sec.state.ma.us/mhc) under the subject heading "MHC Forms."

7. Historical data. Explain the historical/architectural importance of this area.

At the turn of the 20th century, Harry Brown established a hosiery mill called the Brown Stocking Mill Co. atop the hill northeast of the center of Ipswich. In the first optimistic flush of his enterprise (which briefly employed 800 operatives), Brown laid out Brownsville Ave. just south of his factory and built 22 houses, extending west from the factory down the slope of Brownsville Ave. to Topsfield Rd.

The hosiery mill soon failed, but the houses remain. All are front-gabled with front porches, and vary from 1½ to 2½ stories in height. Decorative detailing is minimal and consists of gable returns, turned porch balusters, and simple brackets. Uniformity of lot size and setback, repetition of very similar designs, and a stair-step effect of the rooflines create a cohesive streetscape on the steep hill. Though closely spaced on narrow lots, the Brownsville houses have unusually deep rear yards, many with large gardens.

Today some of the houses have been altered through synthetic siding, enclosed porches, and other additions, but many retain original detailing. The cohesiveness of the streetscape, reliant as it is on uniformity of placement and massing, remains largely unaffected by these alterations. Brownsville Ave. represents a group of late 19th-early 20th century mill houses that were and are far more successful than the factory that spawned them.

NATIONAL REGISTER CRITERIA STATEMENT

This area appears to be eligible for listing on the National Register under Criteria A and C. Its well-preserved mill building and cluster of houses, all built by the Brown Stocking Mill Company, are representative of industrial development in Ipswich in the late 19th and early 20th century. The houses are well-preserved and the historic streetscape is retained.

At the turn of the 20th century, Harry Brown established a hosiery mill called the Essex Hosiery Co. atop the hill northeast of the center of Ipswich. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE by

PP

THIS AREA INCLUDES THE BROWN STOCKING MILL AND RELATED WORKER HOUSING, APPEARS TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR LISTING AS A DISTRICT PRIMARILY FOR ITS ASSOCIATIONS W/ THE INDUSTRIAL AND SOCIAL/ETHNIC HISTORY OF IPSWICH & SECONDARILY IS A SURVIVING COMPLEX OF INDUSTRIAL BUILDINGS, COMPANY BUILT HOUSING & OTHER RESIDENCES RELATED TO INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITIES IN THE SITE

THE BROWN STOCKING MILL WAS BUILT C. 1906 BY HARRY BROWN WHO ALSO LAID OUT BROWNSVILLE AVE & CONSTRUCTED 22 HOUSES ON BROWNSVILLE AVE FOR HIS WORKERS. THE MILL CLOSED IN 1910 AND AT THIS TIME THE WORKER HOUSING WAS SOLD OFF. THE ESSEX HOSIERY COMPANY OCCUPIED THE MILL FROM 1910-1916; FROM 1929 TO THE 1950S THE MILL WAS OCCUPIED BY F. L. BURKE & SONS LEATHER SHEET HEELING COMPANY. CURRENTLY THE MILL IS OCCUPIED BY OTHER COMMERCIAL INTERESTS.

THE MILL APPEARS TO BE IN GOOD SHAPE & RETAIN INTEGRITY, MOST OF THE ADDITIONS APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN DONE C. 1950. MORE DOCUMENTATION IS NEEDED. THE HOUSES HAVE ALL BEEN ALTERED BY SIDING AND ARCH ENCLOSURES AND POSSIBLE WINDOW REPLACEMENTS, BUT RETAIN THEIR BASIC SHAPE AND FORM. A SMALL "MOM & POP" GROCERY STORE APPEARS TO BE THE MOST INTACT BUILDING IN THE AREA. OUTSIDE OF THE MILL, VISITS TO THIS AREA NEED TO BE DONE TO DETERMINE OVERALL INTEGRITY OF AREA
