

Memento Mori: The Ipswich Old North Burying Ground

The Old North Burying Ground in Ipswich was established in 1634 upon the founding of the town of Ipswich and is located on High St. across from Lords Square. The maps and list of interments are from “Memento Mori,” published by the Ipswich Historical Society in 1935. Names are preceded by a letter and a number referring to the map section of the cemetery, and the number of the particular stone on the map.

Map numbers link to photos of the gravestones from this site and the Findagrave site, with special thanks to John Glassford, © 2010-2022 on Find A Grave. Linked names at the end of rows link to the Findagrave site.

C-156 In memory of the Rev. Nathaniel Rogers; who was more than 47 years, a faithful and beloved Pastor of the first Church and Congregation in this place; Colleague of the first 18 years, with his venerable Father, the Rev. John Rogers of precious memory, whose dust lies near: Alone in office after, until death translated him to the high reward of his labors. He slept in Jesus, May 10th, A.D. 1775, AEt. 74. A mind profoundly great; a heart that felt the ties of nature, friendship and humanity; Distinguished wisdom, dignity of manners, these marked the man; but with superior grace the Christian shone, in faith and heavenly zeal, sweet peace, true goodness, and prevailing prayer. Dear Man of God! with what strong agonies he wrestled for his flock-and for the world! and like Apollos mighty in the Scriptures, opened the mysteries of love divine and the great name of Jesus! Warm from his lips the heavenly doctrine fell; and numbers rescued from the jaws of hell, shall hail him blest in realm of light unknown. And add immortal luster to his crown. (F.S.) Rev. E-166 Here lies interred the body of Mrs. Susanna Smith, wife of Capt. John Smith, who departed this life Dec. 26th, 1781, aged 82. Why should we mourn departed friends? Or shake at death's alarms? 'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends to call them to his arms. Are we not tending upward too as fast as time can move? Nor would we wish the hours more slow to keep us from our Love. Why should ye tremble to convey their bodies to the tomb? There the dear flesh of Jesus lay and left a long perfume. The graves of all his saints he blessed and softened every bed: Where should the dying members rest but with the dying Head? (F.S.) Mrs. Susanna Smith.
